

General Orders

Order 1 Recruiting

All members will assist with the clans recruiting effort. All recruitment lobbies must be supervised by a member that holds the billet of an NCO or higher. Platoon leaders are to ensure that a recruitment lobby is hosted once a week by any element of their platoon. Members that receive new recruits are responsible for the well being and introduction to the clan, and assuring that new members are introduced by a commissioned officer.

It is the platoon commander's responsibility to communicate to higher, so that new members may be added to the roster and distributed appropriately throughout their company.

Order 2 Accountability

Members are to be accounted for dailey and must be on at least 2-3 times per week and participate in at least 1 clan event per week.

Members are required to wear the UNMCF uniform in accordance to the UNMCF Uniform Order while actively carrying out duties within the clan.

Members are expected to utilize their COC when they have a concern about clan events or questions.

Members must participate in squad and or team activities held by billited leaders to increase unit cohesiveness.

Members are to communicate any reasoning for an extended period of absence in order to not be charged UA, and for leaders to get proper accountability.

Order 3 Small Unit Leaders

Small Unit leaders (team leaders, and squad leaders) will host training sessions within their units to increase cohesiveness at least once a week. All exercises, classes, and events will be conducted in accordance to anything within the UM-UIG-2.

Senior members and peers are tasked with fixing any discrepancies within their unit.

All members are mandatory reporters of anything in violation of clan law.

Squad leaders can recommend promotion
Up to SGT.

Billeted leaders, and NCOs may discipline members with wise judgement. All billeted NCOs, and NCOs are tasked with upholding good order and discipline throughout the junior enlisted ranks.

Order 4 Duty

Any UNMCF member that has an assigned duty to stand for a duration of time will check in with their direct chain of command and notify them that they are currently standing that duty. UNMCF Members who encounter any situation that requires a higher echelon of authority will notify their direct chain of command or a UNMCF Ambassador to resolve any foreign issues.

Order 5 Enforcement Of Clan Law

All articles within the UNMCF UCCL (Universal Code of Clan Law) are to be enforced by all members of NCO, or Officer ranks. Punishments may be given by members of higher grade. Under circumstances that a member of a lesser grade is to witness, or hear of members of a higher rank in rank violate any article of the UCCL must report in about such incident to a different member of equal grade, or higher.
